TUMKUR DISTRICT.

Notification dated 30th September 1934.

In connection with the Jatra of Sree Anjaneyaswami at Kyamenahalli, Koratagere Taluk: to come off from 8th February 1935, the following instructions are issued for the guidance of the public who resort to the place :—

1. The shops located in the jatra premises should be constructed in lines marked on the jatra site, roads and lanes formed, being left vacant.

2. Sweetmeat shops and hotels should not be located near other shops. They should be in separate lines allotted for the purpose as they will always have the fire ovens going.

3. Temple Premises.—The temple proper will, on no account, be allowed to be used as halting or resting place.

4. Cattle Fair.—Cattle should be made to stand in places or picketed in lines specially allotted for the purpose. The manure should be heaped by the owners in places provided for the purpose.

5. Licenses will not be granted to dramatic companies, circus, cinema theatres, etc., until they have one hundred pots of water ready at all time to meet emergencies.

Notification.

Right of collecting fees on cattle and shops and of collecting manure during the ensuing Jatra of Sri Subrahmanyaswami of Nagalmadike (to come off on 10th January 1935, for a week).

1. The right to collect fees on cattle and shops and to collect manure at the ensuing Jatra of Sri Subrahmanyaswami at Nagalmadike during the year 1934-35, will be sold by public auction by the Assistant Commissioner and Madhugiri Sub-Division Officer on 26th November 1934 at 1 P.M. at the Pavagada Taluk Office.

2. Persons intending to bid at the sale must attend in person or by duly constituted agent.

3. The sale will be subject to the following conditions :—

1. The purchaser of the contract shall collect fees at the rate of two annas on every head of cattle and one anna on each head of calf and on shops at the rates specified in the schedule given below.

2. The fees may be collected at the Ookads near the village.

3. For every item collected, the contractor will be required to issue a ticket in the form approved by the Sub-Division Officer. The contractor should make his own arrangements to provide himself with a sufficient number of ticket books with counterfoils and these books should be made available for inspection by the officers on jatra duty not below the rank of a Revenue Inspector.

4. The person whose bid is finally accepted should deposit one-fourth of the amount at once. In default of payment of the deposit immediately after the close of the sale, a resale will be conducted and he will be made responsible for any loss by such resale but will not be entitled to any increase that may result therefrom. The rest of the money should be paid to the treasury within seven days after the sale and if the seventh day is a General Holiday, within the next working day, failing which a re-auction will be held at the risk of the bidder. The deposit made by him or such portion as the Sub-Division Officer thinks fit shall be forfeited to Government.

5. The sale will be subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner.

6. An appeal against Deputy Commissioner's order confirming the sale will lie to the Muzrai Commissioner within fifteen days after the sale is confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner.

7. The sale conducting officer is not bound to accept any bid offered after the close of the sale.

8. The sale purchaser of the manure will have no right to collect manure in hiduvali lands.

9. The contractor should deposit a sufficient number of free tickets with the Amildar for distribution among devotees who bring things in cart for charitable purposes as Aravattige, etc., and the raiyats who repair to the temple and render services in the temple during jatras.

10. The contractor shall not be entitled to any remission of the contract amount or to any compensation on account of any cause whatever.

11. The contractor should make his own arrangements for the collection work.

12. The contractor and his employees shall always behave courteously towards the public and shall not harass them or give them trouble of any kind.

13. In case of dispute about the classification of shops, the decision of the Amildar, will be final.

14. Officers on duty during the jatra shall be exempted from payment of toll on their conveyances.
